Sunsets at the Zoo

Santa Ana Zoo's Summer Concert Series

SANTA ANA, CA – On Sunday June 8th, Sunday June 29th and Sunday July 20th, the Santa Ana Zoo, located at 1801 E. Chestnut Ave, will host live music performances during the beautiful California sunsets. Admission is $10 per person ages 3 & up, and half-price of just $5 for Zoo Members. Children under 3 are free. Whether it's the party picnic atmosphere, the animals, the great performances or the displays of art, there is something for everyone at Sunsets at the Zoo. So pack up a picnic dinner and blanket and bring your family and friends on out to enjoy an evening of animal encounters, free train rides, music and art from 5:30pm-7:30pm each evening.

Featuring different headliners, Sunsets will showcase the Vega Band on June 8, a funky Smooth Jazz band fronted by Vega on Saxophone; the Peggie Perkins Trio on June 29, Jazz standards and Cool takes on a lot of your favorite tunes; the Ron Kobayashi Trio on July 20, all the best Contemporary Jazz grooves. This concert series is a family fun event for people of all ages. In addition to the great Jazz concert and art show, there are docents and keepers presenting many interesting Zoo animals, crafts and fun for the kids, FREE rides on the Zoofari Express train, coffee and cookies and a wonderful chance to view and enjoy the animals after hours.

The Zoo is open daily from 10:00am-4:00pm. Maps and general admission information are available on the Zoo's website at www.santaanazoo.org. If you would like to become a member of the Zoo, please call (714) 953-8555 x13.
