

Santa Ana Zoo

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Weekday Docents: Docents lead tours and teach education programs to 1st – 4th grade school groups on weekday mornings. After an extensive training program, this volunteer program requires volunteering one morning per week. Minimum age: 18. Please contact Lauren Bergh at (714) 647-6562 for additional information.

Family Farm Monitors: Our Family Farm monitors assist the public with feeding the goats and sheep while sharing information about the animals. Monitors sign up for two hour shifts any day of the week. Minimum age: 16. Please contact Lauren Bergh at (714) 647-6562 for additional information.

Imagine YOU in the ZOO!!

Zoo Ambassadors: Ambassadors interact with the public at various stations around the zoo by using touchable artifacts, photos, etc. They also assist staff during live animal presentations. Program requires volunteering one day per week on Saturdays or Sundays. You must be able to work independently and have good public relations skills. Minimum age: 18. Please contact Terri Hernandez at (714) 647-6562 for additional information.

Special Events: Every month, something new and interesting is happening at the Zoo! Whether it is the Zoo-B-Que, Zoofari or Boo at the Zoo, we're always in need of volunteers to assist with the events. Work on kids' crafts, scoop ice cream or paint faces. Minimum age: 16. Please mail in your application.

Zoo Train: Have you always wanted to be a train engineer? Volunteers are needed for train operations including track maintenance and train maintenance. Minimum age: 21. Please mail in your application.

Clerical: Is office work your cup of tea? Do you enjoy working on computers? Then helping out filing, stuffing, folding, labeling, or entering data may be your perfect match. No experience required. It's fun, easy and interesting. Work mornings or afternoons, weekdays or weekends. Minimum age: 16. Please contact Vanessa at (714) 953-8555 x10 for additional information.
